Section Leader Comments

Please comment on your Section Leader's teaching.

Comments
Jeremiah was very knowledgeable and provided helpful feedback when it was asked for, along with good comments on ideas for improvement in our midterms and quizzes (when applicable). Section was never extremely energetic, but he took us into often very intriguing deep dives.
fantastic teaching fellow and really encourages learning and discussion!
As aforementioned, Jeremiah is a great TF. His comments on assignments are particularly helpful and definitely helped me improve in the course. He seems to be a "tough grader" but he is not unreasonable by any standard. He is easily accessible outside of class. The only issue I have with section is the overuse of outside sources that are not pertinent to understanding course material. This is personal preference though.
Jeremiah Cha is very competent.
Jeremiah is a phenomenal section leader! He is very knowledgeable with regards to anything American Government, and is very helpful in terms of student support. He is constantly providing resources, and working to properly introduce first years to the Harvard Government Department. I really wish that I had him as a first year. He is a great teacher and mentor. Harvard Gov is very lucky to have Jeremiah!
Great section leader, very knowledgable about American government. Went above and beyond, taught us additional material beyond the normal lectures.
Jeremiah was very helpful and a great section leader this semester.
quite helpful

Jeremiah is the best! So helpful and patient.
Would meet with me personally to discuss anything that made me confused. Was so incredibly patient and kind, and a phenomenal instructor.
Jeremiah is one of the best TFs I've had at Harvard. He's energetic and explains course material clearly. Jeremiah was extremely helpful with our final project and was overall supportive throughout the entire semester. He's also very knowledgeable about data science, so his answers to students' questions were always insightful.
Jeremiah was amazing and very kind, responsive, and knowledgeable.
Jeremiah does a really good job of reviewing lecture material within section and making sure that all of us feel comfortable and confident with the week's topics. Whenever I am struggling with completing problem sets or face a problem with my research project, I am able to easily reach out to him outside of class to get help. He always provides really useful feedback and makes it really easy for students to ask him for help.
Although my section arrangement was a bit non–traditional due to scheduling issues, I still wanted to say how helpful and thorough and invested Jeremiah was throughout the course, always doing everything he could for us to succeed and understand the material.
Jeremiah was great. He was always happy to answer any questions and was super nice when answering them.
Incredible section leader; super engaging during section and broke down complex topics into understandable pieces; was easy to access during and after class; answers questions really well and goes above and beyond to help you
Jeremiah is a fantastic CA. He did an especially great job helping all the groups work out their final projects.
I loved how Jerimiah employed concepts from lecture into section via data that he personally found interesting (like basketball). It let me realize that we can apply these concepts to anything our heart desires.
Jeremiah was a great section leader. I found he was often accessible even though Thursday was his primary office hours. He provided section as a time for review and covered the material well and facilitated section well. He would review concepts from lecture. Overall a great section Leader/TF
Jeremiah is one of the best TFs I've ever had! He is so caring and is so committed to helping students! He is a great teacher and can explain complicated subjects in a very approachable manner. He also provides really useful feedback and is always willing to help out! Truly a one of a kind TF!
Jeremiah is a great TF. I really appreciated that he was fairly flexible with what we covered in section, leaving a lot of time to discuss questions we had about lecture/projects/psets/the midterm. Using different examples than those Naijia used during lecture was a great way to understand new topics, and I appreciated that he was always willing to slow down when doing live coding exercises. Jeremiah was also super helpful in office hours with regards to explaining a question I had about IV and my final project.
Jeremiah is the picture of what you would want from a Harvard TF. He's fun, professional, accessible outside of class, the whole works. He will sit with you long after class trying to figure out a coding or stats problem just because you're interested in it. Can't recommend him enough.

Jeremiah Cha is a phenomenal section leader. He gives genuine feedback on the assignments and facilitates discussion well.
Jeremiah was a great TF! He was helpful with any questions about the content. He encouraged participation and generated a comfortable section environment.
Jeremiah was an amazing TF. He was a good communicator, provided constructive feedback, and always made time for his students.
Jeremiah was a very good lecturer and lead great discussions in section.
Very good all around.
Jeremiah was amazing! His sections allowed for a conversation about the topics in class, giving us the opportunity to look at different topics from a broader perspective, On all of our assignments, he provided alot of great feedback, including our daily quizzes. He was super accessible out of class in person, by holding office hours weekly, or via email. Maybe he graded out final essays a little harder than expected. But, he was overall an amazing section leader. I would gladly take a class with him as the TF. He was great.
